

THE WORD IS THE QUEEN OF THE WORLD (AUT. 449)

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people: "What do you think of this? A man had two sons. He went to the first and said to him: 'Son, today go and work in my vineyard.' And the son answered: 'I don't want to.' But later he thought better of it and went. Then the father went to the second and gave him the same command. This son replied: 'I will go, sir,' but he did not go.

Which of the two did what the father wanted?" They answered, "The first." And Jesus said to them, "Truly, I say to you: the publicans and the prostitutes are ahead of you on the way to the kingdom of heaven. For John came to show you the way of goodness but you did not believe him, yet the publicans and the prostitutes did.

You were witnesses of this, but you neither repented nor believed him.

A COMMENTARY TO THE SUNDAY GOSPEL FOR AND FROM LAY CLARETIANs

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

This is the portrait of many men and women today, including those we call ourselves Christians. We say "yes" to God but we do not always work in harmony. God has obedient and disobedient children; with "appearance" of rebels, but who fulfill their will; with the appearance of "faithful" but who are inconsistent with their faith. There are those who live far from God but know how to "turn to Him" and follow their advice. There are those who have always lived in a believing context ... but they still have much left to be joyful witnesses of the Father's mercy. Our Sourcebook invites us to live our daily life as "a place of encounter with God and identification with his plans" (n° 30). Let us nourish in the new course that has begun our encounter with Him (prayer, community, celebration, charity ...) to realize their plans in our world.

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR MISSION IN THE WORLD

Today begins the October Claretian Missionary and in this context, we are called to continue responding "yes" to the call of God and, as stated in the final declaration of our last General Assembly of Granada (July 2015), "continue to deepen in our transforming work of our world and in the construction of the Church. " Let's say "yes" ... and let's put it "to it". May our works conform to our faith. May Jesus Christ boast of us, for we follow his steps with docility. May the Church see us consistent with the message of which she is the depositary. That, like Mary, let's say "Be done" at your will in our lives.

IT IS THE WORD OF LIFE (AUT. 450)

PRAYER FROM THE WORD

Father, that we know to be faithful to your will at any time and situation of our life. That as Mary we can always tell you to DO. May our life be to always be your witnesses in this world.
