

THE WORD IS THE QUEEN OF THE WORLD (AUT. 449)

Jesus said to his disciples: "When the Son of Man comes in his glory with all his angels, he will sit on the throne of his Glory. All the nations will be brought before him, and as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, so will he do with them, placing the sheep on his right and the goats on his left. The King will say to those on his right: 'Come, blessed of my Father! Take possession of the kingdom prepared for you from the beginning of the world. For I was hungry and you fed me, I was thirsty and you gave me drink. I was a stranger and you welcomed me into your house. I was naked and you clothed me. I was sick and you visited me. I was in prison and you came to see me.' Then the good people will ask him: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and give you food; thirsty and give you drink, or a stranger and welcome you, or naked and clothe you? When did we see you sick or in prison and go to see you?' The King will answer, 'Truly, I say to you: whenever you did this to these little ones who are my brothers and sisters, you did it to me.' Then he will say to those on his left: 'Go, cursed people, out of my sight into the eternal fire which has been prepared for the devil and his angels! For I was hungry and you did not give me anything to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me nothing to drink; I was a stranger and you did not welcome me into your house; I was naked and you did not clothe me; I was sick and in prison and you did not visit me.' They, too, will ask: 'Lord, when did we see you hungry, thirsty, naked or a stranger, sick or in prison, and did not help you?' The King will answer them: 'Truly, I say to you: whatever you did not do for one of these little ones, you did not do for me.' And these will go into eternal punishment, but the just to eternal life."

A COMMENTARY TO THE SUNDAY
GOSPEL FOR AND FROM
LAY CLARETIANS

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR RELATIONSHIP WITH GOD

The Word that Jesus gives us in Christ Rey's festivity is clear to feed and strengthen our relationship with the Father. As Jesus tells us, our charity towards the most forgotten, needy and rejected of this society will determine before the Father if we are "sheep" or "goats". Our intimate relationship with God should lead us to act as Jesus did, choosing for life before the law, as Father Claret also assumed imitating and following Jesus with these same principles.

REFLECTIONS TO FEED OUR MISSION IN THE WORLD

As lay Claretians, our mission must be full of love, humility, solidarity, charity and disinterestedness to be gentle sheep but with trickery of serpent, wherever we are and where the Holy Spirit leads us. We must carry out the task that God entrusts us without fear, following the example of our founder and imitating Jesus without getting weak

PRAYER FROM THE GOSPEL

Father God, instill in us the ardor and charity that Father Claret brought to fullness throughout his life. May that fire embrace us as well as the blessed Claretian martyrs who, in unison, cried out "Christ Rey lives!" when they were taken as sheep to the slaughterhouse.
